

Connecting

When opening the DHI License Administration utility, you will see the new Internet Mode option.

You will also note that there is no Usage Tab, since the web portal is now used to see who is using what license and what is available.

Connect, input credentials and then click OK (test the license afterwards using Show License or Test Button on first Tab).

